This workshop provides the first supraregional overview of belt elements (such as hooks and plates) during the 1st millennium BCE from Iberia to northern Italy, via southern France.

The aim is to suggest new scenarios on the production and usage of these objects. To achieve this, an interdisciplinary and critical approach will be adopted using anthropological, social, and cultural methodologies.

The workshop is promoted by the:
ANR Itineris & AOROC,
IINAPH ( University of Alicante),
University of Milano,
IRN Nemesis
